Tramp Location

How to get to START: Exit Taupo northwards on SH1 and turn off at the top of Control Gates Hill left to Poihipi Road. There are two routes with one being shorter but on gravel and both take the same length of time.

The dusty route is on Poihipi past Wairakei Forest then left to Whangamata Road for Kinloch. Do not turn left at the next sign for Kinloch but go straight ahead to turn right at a T-junction on SH32 (Western Bay Road) then left into Kakaho Road in 34 minutes and cross two bridges. The road becomes gravel (37 minutes) before passing signs for Kakoha Recreation Area then just stay on the main well surfaced gravel road. The car park for the Link Track is passed at 57 minutes and ten kilometres further on reach the DoC Centre area at Pureora

Rough Description: The Timber Trail starts from near the DoC Centre in the Pureora Forest Park and heads south eastwards to meet up with the Toitoe Track ascending Mt Pureora. This tramp links the Timber Trail with the Toitoe Track to get up Pureora then descends via the old, degraded track to Bog Inn. Over 6 hours required to cover the 18 – 22km, distance depends on a new bridge being built or not on the exit road from Bog Inn. Check with the DoC Centre in the Forest Park on the status of the Bog Inn Road.

Tramp start

Diversion to the tractor

Detail: The start of the trail (WP01<sup>576masl</sup>) is easy to find and updated information is willingly supplied by the staff in the DoC Information Centre. the trail is heavily used by walkers, runners and bikers and makes getting to the Toi Toi track easy. From the start it is level walking on a wide, meandering track in magnificent forest and is usually cool if not cold - but remember that this is actually a bike trail so be very wary at all times. After 20 minutes or so there is the first of several wide, wooden bridges to cross (WP02<sup>589masl</sup>). In less than an hour or 3km (WP03<sup>602masl</sup>) there is a junction sign-posted north leading to an old crawler tractor 5 min down the track – it is worthwhile looking at this 1928 bit of kit. The second wooden bridge lies at just over 3km (WP04<sup>612masl</sup>) and a minute later (WP05<sup>616masl</sup>) the road which heads NE to a quarry is crossed. Fifteen minutes later a bigger road (WP06<sup>635masl</sup>) is met where the trail goes left then after 50m goes off right, 10 min later bridges 3 and 4 are crossed.

Cabbage Tree Rd crossing

After 1:20- 1:35min and 6km Cabbage Tree Road (WP08<sup>684masl</sup>) is crossed with a sign indicating the Maraeroa Cycle Way going right on the road– from here the slopes do increase a fraction as some altitude is gained. In under 2 hours as another road (WP09<sup>722masl</sup>) is crossed the Red Shed can be seen on the edge of the tree line upslope to the SE on the right. The trail now winds up the now-noticeable slope crossing another two bridges en-route. Within about two hours (8km) the Red Shed (WP11<sup>780masl</sup>) is reached and this can make an excellent rest spot as there is shelter if the weather is inclement and there are very good views to the west.

Heading to the Red Shed

Red Shed

The track continues up the left side of the Red Shed and it is back into the bush. Like in other places there are good information boards on this section as it wiggles its way uphill to the SE. There are a few minor slopes and a few slippery bits due to ground-water oozing out but overall it is very easy going – even on a bike. The wiggles more or less stop at WP12<sup>924masl</sup> then there is a left turn uphill on to the Toitoe Track as it crosses the Timber Trail (WP13<sup>960masl</sup>). There is now a distinct change as the track is virtually not maintained so some care has to be taken on this back-country track.

There is a sign advising that the Pureora Trig is only 40 minutes uphill and, in fact, it takes less than 40 minutes. The delights of the old track are very apparent with sufficient mud and eroded parts to keep all very happy. Old boardwalk is hit after another 30 minutes (WP14<sup>1124masl</sup>), the bush begins to thin and soon the actual trig (WP15<sup>1182masl</sup>) can be seen on the horizon and was arrived at after a total time of 3:28min (12.2km). There is a communications mast on the summit powered by PV panels and clear signs indicating the way down to Link Road. By going to the end of the walkable area on the crest the track down to Bog Inn can be found, but the start is heavily overgrown and if you do not know it is there you might never actually find it

As they say "it is all downhill" from here and the hard work of the day starts as the track is not well used and is much degraded in places though it is easy to follow the line of the track and is good enough to allow safe walking. There is a level area (WP16<sup>1097masl</sup>) after a "nasty" descent then a stream is crossed (WP17<sup>1059masl</sup>). The scrambling goes on for a bit then there is a wonderful surprise when the rough stuff stops and the Timber Trail (WP18<sup>973masl</sup>) is once again encountered and used by turning to the right. There is now a kilometre or so of delightful, level walking on the bike track through magnificent wet forest heading to the SE then the SW – note one particularly awesome moss-covered tree (WP19<sup>917masl</sup>). All this is more distance than the old track but much-much quicker. About 4 hours 45 minutes at around 900m there is a viewpoint looking towards the Taupo area (WP20) then the trail crisscrosses the old mapped track whilst heading S to SSW. On coming down a steepish slope a junction with a notice board is reached at around 5 hours (WP21<sup>855masl</sup>) where the route to Bog Inn goes off left to follow the old track whilst the Timber Trail swings off to the right – walking here is still pretty easy and almost level.

Moss covered trees

Established bike track

The last hurdle

Near the bottom of a yet another slightly steep descent another notice board is met at a T-junction (WP22<sup>832masl</sup>) with Bog Inn 15 minutes off to the right and the Weraroa Track signposted to the left. Five or six minutes of level walking reaches the signposted Weraroa Track (WP23<sup>822masl</sup>) going off to the right. Ten minutes after this junction there is a steep descent to an open area where the track is parallel to the stream (WP24<sup>774masl</sup>) then two minutes later there is a bridge (WP25<sup>758masl</sup>) and a sign for the Hauhungaroa Route and the track ends on a gravel road with a car park. However this car park has not been accessible for quite some time so the walk continues for another 3km or 40 minutes down the road, passing a secondary car park (WP26<sup>765masl</sup>) on this undulating forest road. The end really is nigh when a massive bund blocking the road is reached for it is then over the bund, turn right then get down and through the small incised valley without getting the feet wet to reach another bund and the motorable road.
